BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 14. BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. R.

HE Eastern racing season, entering on its last lap te-morrow with an eleven-day term at Bowle that he is the rightful owner of the handlean division's crown. His performances through the Metropolitic and afforded Exterminator another opportunity to display his rich possession of that greatest of all thoroughbred qualities, stamina. While these waning Maryland days were unaccessary toward establishing the championship calibre of Morvich and Exterminator, they have succeeded in tightening the claims on their respective crowns. Morvich's Pimileo Futurity showed that he is a potential route thaveler as well as the undisconting stampion of the juventies.

Exterminator's worth has been rec-

Exterminator's worth has been recognized throughout four years. He ran one of the best races of all that period on Saturday when he again conceded weight to Boniface and defeated him over the two-mile and a quarter distance. The contest was staged with cup weight up and over a trying course that was deep and heavy really high class horses at Bowle this season than there ever were before. gameness and strength.
